

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1897.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising space to a merchant who can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods, or to a man who has no legitimate business concerns. His advertisements are to stock. His advertising space should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

We Knew We Had a Good Thing in the Stock of Goods

We bought by electric light a few days since. There is so much clap-trap Clothing advertisements in vague just now that we refrained from saying very much about the purchase. We simply called the public's attention to it by telling them to look at the display of these goods in our windows and note the prices on them. We knew we would sell some of them. The warm weather left a doubt as to selling a great many now. The doubt is dispelled. Since the day we opened this purchase and placed them in our windows our store has been crowded with customers who have seen these marks of knowledge. We advise our friends who contemplate buying Fall Suits and Overcoats not to let this opportunity slip. It is only once in a long time that circumstances arise that enable merchants to secure first-class Clothing that can be sold for less money than the cheaply gotten-up stuff that is flooding the market just now.

Our $2, $2.50 and $3 Custom-Made

That we warrant to give satisfaction and cheerfully return the money if they do not have quickly sprung into favor. Out of town mail orders—and of which we receive many—receive prompt attention. Look at our show-windows; none like them in the state.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA & AMERICANS!

"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it."—General Grant.

Therefore THE LEDGER favors the rigid enforcement of the Civil Service Law.

"They say" that there is now a probability that Mr. JOHN R. PROCTER, Democrat, will be "fired" from the Presidency of the Civil Service Commission, and that a good Republican will be put in his place; but "they say" so many things that do not come to pass.

DO THE DEMOCRATIC brethren really feel jubilant? They protest to BRYAN that he has issued his manifesto calling attention to gain and the increasing sentiment in favor of silver as shown by the election, but they are intended for people who don't know anything. With MARY HANNA as good as elected a Senator, with GORMAN defeated in his stronghold and throughout his state, with Republican gains in Kansas, with Free-silver again repudiated in New York, Massachusetts, Iowa, Ohio and Pennsylvania, what real cause for comfort and satisfaction the Democrats can find is hard to discover.

THE REPUBLICAN Administration at Frankfort is getting along very nicely in paying off the heavy debt which Democracy left upon the state.

Ten cents of the 52 cents state tax the people are paying this year is devoted, as is generally known, to the payment of old and outstanding interest-bearing warrants. Up to date the Treasurer has called in and paid off $195,000 worth of the oldest of these warrants. He now announces that on or about December 5th he will be able to pay off $200,000 worth of the same sort of paper, and will soon issue a call to that effect.

When all the revenue for this year is in, and all of this ten cents fund is paid out, the amount of old interest-bearing warrants paid off will largely exceed the amount of new interest-bearing warrants issued the earlier part of the year for current expenses, and before the year's revenue began coming in. Thus the floating debt will have been reduced considerably this year by means of the increased tax rate, and next year, it is hoped, will be nearly wiped out.

The 42 cents left, after the ten cents fund is devoted to this purpose, or the general expenditure part of it, is proving insufficient to pay the state's current expenses; but the Auditor says no more interest-bearing warrants will be issued. Instead they will borrow from the Shaking Fund whatever they lack to keep going and paying in cash, and will pay it back with the ten cents fund, when all the interest-bearing warrants are settled.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

"BUD" WINSTON HANGED.

The First Legal Execution in Paducah, Ky.—Six Victims Accredited to This Blood. The last execution in the history of Paducah occurred here, April 1, 1850, when "Bud" Wilson, best known among the Negroes as the "Black Devil," was jerked into eternity.

Winston was convicted of the murder of a white woman, and his wife had a friend to the fellow, giving him food and clothing when he was hunted by officers who wanted him on three or four criminal charges.

Winston accused the woman and she recited this by ordering him to leave her home. This angered him and he struck her with a fire shovel, killing her instantly.

Since the trial in which he was convicted, Negroes who were acquainted with Winston have told of other murders he has been guilty of. If the stories told by him are true the "Black Devil" was a fiend and deserved his fate.

There is every reason for believing that Winston killed six persons.

DENIES FALSE REPORTS.

Mrs. Clay Away From Whitehull on a Visit—Has Received a Large Handful of Flowers. The Last Two Weeks—VALLEY VIEW, Ky., Nov. 20.—Gen. Cassius Marcellus Clay's girl wife, who was Dorothy Richardson, was interviewed Friday night in the plain cabin of her brother, Old Richardson, in the mountains here.

When asked why she left plain old Whitehull for the lonely cabin she said: "I was lonesome. I had no one to talk to. I had a toothache and went to Cincinnati last month and stayed two weeks, having my eyes treated. Then Nannie Biggerstaff, about my age, came and stayed with me till I came back home again. I have been away from him two weeks, but have gone to see him five times since then. I don't know when I'll go back—not until I get my visit out."

She denied that she had said she did not love him. Clay may more.

A Longing Girl.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Flora Lillian Van Schaack, who started for Chicago Thursday to try to collect the $65,000 from her father-in-law, Peter Van Schaack, the millionaire drugging man of Chicago, which a Brooklyn newspaper said was the result of his wife's infidelity, has been denied a hearing by the court. She was born in Covington, Ky., in 1872. Her maiden name was Palmer. Her father, Capt. Palmer, who earned his title in the confederate army, died when Lillian was but seven years old.

TOOMPAHILL, KY., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Polly Cox, wife of Dr. John B. Blackie, formerly, was held in default of $1,000 bond to answer for complicity in an attempt to murder her husband. Sam Dally, a son-in-law of Dr. Cox, is being on a charge of attempted murder. CONFLAGRATION

Rages in London, the Metropolis of the World.

One Hundred and Fifty Warehouses With Their Contents Destroyed.

The Burned Territory Covers an Area of 100,000 Square Yards.—The Loss is Over $50,000,000.—Ancient Churches Burned—No Loss of Life is Reported.

London, Nov. 20.—One of the most disastrous fires in London's history since the great fire of 1666, broke out in a large block of buildings lying eastward of the Strand street, between the Fleet, the Strand, and Red Cross street, just after 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. The flames were fanned by a strong wind and were fed by highly inflammable materials of Christmas fancy goods and fireworks. The fire, of great description, that filled every floor of the six buildings in the oldest street. Consequently the configuration gained headway with surprising rapidity and was beyond the possibility of being checked, as the flames were early on the spot. For four and a half hours the flames had been their own way and it was after more than a hundred engines had worked an hour that the chief of the fire brigade sent a signal that the fire was under control.

At 11 o'clock Friday night the fire was still the scene of greatest excitement, as fire engines were racing upon the roads, wagons were hurrying up coal and tons of water were pouring into the fiery debris.

The scene must occupy the fire brigade for several days, especially in view of the difficulty of getting the collapse of the shells of buildings, which fall now and again with a loud report. The latest accounts indicate that nearly a hundred warehouses have been destroyed, with the loss of probably $50,000,000 to $60,000,000.

The historic church of St. Giles has been much damaged, the principal damage being to the roof, the old windows, the baptismal font and Milton's statue.

At 12 o'clock Saturday morning a very large force of firemen and about twenty engines have been working at a high pressure all night. The district ravaged by the fire is bounded by Aldgate street, Red Cross, Middle, High Court, and Bishopsgate, and the intermediate streets of Jewin, Hansell, Well and Edmund and Jenny Crescent, and part of Australian avenue, Paul's alley, Cripplegate churchyard, Wood street, and a portion of Bishopsgate street, N. Middle and St. Paul's.

It is officially reported that 150 warehouses have been gutted. A later estimate of the damage done places the amount at nearly $50,000,000 sterling.

Nearly all of the British fire insurance companies are involved and fire insurance shares were practically untenable on the stock exchange Friday afternoon after the fire was well under way.

Nearly 800 telephone wires have been cut, thus interrupting communication with many of the big provincial towns. The fire will cause an enormous increase in the cost of feather, which are at 30 per cent. Friday evening. Two feather firms alone have lost $10,000 sterling ($75,000).

The damage done by the fire is enormous. Most of the buildings destroyed were six stories high and filled with merchandise.

The area of the fire is at least 100,000 square yards. Sixty warehouses have already been destroyed and the fire has extended from Wood street square to Aldgate street.

The fire originated in the store of an umbrella manufacturer on Hansell street at 11 o'clock Friday afternoon, and the great loss of property seems to be due to the delay in calling the fire department. The published report says that the police officer who first detected the flames blew his whistle loudly for assistance, but several minutes elapsed before the alarm was given by any of the companies. As soon as assistance reached him the officer was dispatched to call the fire brigade.

But here again this was an uncontrollable delay of 30 minutes before the first alarm was given. Then the fearful dimensions of the fire were apparent, and it was decided to circulate a call throughout the whole metropolitan district.

The church of St. Giles was built in 1666. It is approached by an archway in Red Cross street, also within the scene of the conflagration, and contains among other things the tomb of John Fox, the martyrdom of Bishop Grosseteste, the voyager, who died in 1594, and Speel, the typographer, who died in 1623.

Oliver Cromwell was married in the church of St. Giles, August 29, 1630, and the parish register contains an entry of the burial of Daniel Defoe, the author of "Robinson Crusoe," who died in 1731.

Ministers, commemorated in the church of St. Giles by a bust, by Bacon, and the late George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, erected a stained glass window in this church to the poet's memory.

In the church yard is an old bastion of the London wall and close by in London wall is a small part of the church yard of St. Alphege, containing another large fragment of the old wall built by the Romans.

Alders Gate and Cripplegate are names after two of the gates in Roman London.

THRILLING ENCOUNTER

A Locomotive Between a White Man and a Negro.

BRONXVILLE, N. Y., Nov. 20.—On a bright train dashing southward over the Louisville & Nashville railroad at the rate of 30 miles an hour late Thursday night one of the most thrilling encounters ever recorded in fact or fiction took place. The white and the colored, and crazed by drink, the other white and conselions of deadly peril, engaged in a life and death struggle in the cab of a locomotive which had run into the side of the Negro and the maimed escaped from the same fate by the white man. When train No. 25, southbound, left Bronxville at 10:15 p. m., Engineer P. Bishop and Fireman Wiley Craig, coming from the Bronx, were two miles from the city. Bishop told the fireman to stop up the fire. The Negro paid no attention to the order, and it was repeated. This time he stopped it and the engine, starting from a revolver and suddenly and without warning fired a shot point blank at the engineer. The bullet missed him and the engineer struck the Negro from the engine's nose and as the latter was about to draw a second shot, Craig, now crazed with rage, instantly drew a knife and grasped the engineer by the shoulder pulled him from the box and into the cab. The Negro was shot dead. The engineer was paralyzed, and died shortly from the side and may die. The trouble was the outcome of the mobbing of W. C. Brann, publisher of the Ioneoclast.
